

Diana Rose Diana is Founding President Emerita of Garrison Institute and currently serves on the board. She is the co-founder, along with Sharon Salzberg, of the Women's Wellness Project and the CBR Project, and was the founding director for both programs. Mrs. Rose is a leader in helping to build a bridge between spirituality and social action. Diana Rose was educated at UC Berkeley and has a professional background in art, design, event production and gallery management.